Christian: This is a terrible mistake. You need to call me immediately. The government will find you and you will be committing a very serious crime. If you don't call me within five minutes, we are going to notify the government and the Court and there will be a warrant for your arrest. They will also attach your daughter's assets.

Hi Matt,

Please contact the court to tell them that i will not be there tomorrow and cancel the proceedings. I already left the jurisdiction. I can't take the risk we talked about. Sorry about the inconvenience and thanks for everything you have done for me.

Sincerely,

Christian
